

COLLEGE ADMISSIONS ACCOUNTABILITY QUESTIONNAIRE

By answering these questions, your advisor can determine if your child and your family would benefit from expert coaching and personal attention in finding excellent college matches or moving through the entire college application experience.

Answer each of the questions below by clicking in the appropriate boxes:

1. Does your student know what they want to accomplish by going to college? Y N
2. Has your student completed an in-depth personality profile and understands the relationship between personality type and career satisfaction? Y N
3. Has your student identified a probable career path? Y N
4. Does your child know what college major will support their probable career path? Y N
5. Has your child identified colleges and universities that offer strong curriculums in the major they wish to pursue? Y N
6. Does your child know what information to research and where to find it to help make an informed college decision? Y N
7. Is your child communicative with you about the college application process? Y N
8. Does your student have concerns about the college application process (essays, brag sheets, letters of recommendations, getting in)? Y N
9. Would your student appreciate personalized assistance with prioritizing, organizing and completing all of the tasks required in the college application process? Y N